BUSY SUMMER FOR FFA

Lidia Collins, Laura Kerschen and Jared Lung are members of the West Plains FFA that participated in the third annual Show-Me-Beef Leadership Conference in Columbia from June 23 - 25. The focus of the workshops were to prepare junior cattlemen for a future in agriculture and give them the opportunity to meet other young people in the industry. On August 5 - 6 FFA members Desley Jett, Tyler Evans, Laura Kerschen, and Hailey Huddleston met State FFA Officers Kollen Chapman, Osceola and Kelsey Forquern of Malta Bend. The West Plains members were among 300 attendees at the Missouri FFA Associations' 2011 Leadership Adventure held in Springfield. This conference allowed chapter members from across the state to meet and discuss the similarities and different types of agriculture from each area. Leadership training, goal setting and practicing teamwork were a few of the exercises that FFA members experienced. The program, "Advancing New Frontiers," is designed for freshmen and sophomores, while "Starting the Expeditions Process" focuses on juniors and senior classmen.
